NEW HOUSE NUMBERS OUT

The new numbers of residences and business locations were mailed from the City Engineer's office this week, and have excited much interest, especially in Glendale proper, where a complete change is made. All north and south numbering now starts at Broadway, and all east and west numbering at Brand boulevard.

In the Tropico section, the changes will be mainly on north and south streets (and it will be all "south" now), as we already had our east and west numbers from Brand boulevard.

In our opinion, our city trustees have displayed excellent judgment in their work of renaming streets and the renumbering. While at first there may be some trifling confusion in getting our bearings, yet the plan is simple, and will soon meet with universal approval.

By the ordinance, it is made the duty of the occupant, whether owner or renter, to see that the new and correct number is placed in proper position within five days from the receipt of the notification of the new numbers.

MRS. CHAS. H. SCHEU PASSES

Mrs. Louise C. Scheu, wife of Charles H. Scheu, died at her home at 309 North Central avenue, Monday night, September 9th, 1918.

She and Mr. Scheu came to Glendale about thirteen years ago, and have since resided in the home in which she passed away. With her when she died were her husband and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Buddee Scheu, of Arizona. The second of her

POST AND CORPS FESTIVITIES

Members of the N. P. Banks Post and Corps were the guests of Comrade and Mrs. Joseph L. Denney at their home, 419 Verdugo Road, Thursday.

Regardless of the extreme heat of the day, everyone had a most enjoyable time.

Tables had been erected at the rear of the house under the spreading branches of the shade trees, where a typical W. R. C. picnic luncheon was spread at noon.

During the afternoon the guests assembled next door at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dodge, where a delightful Victrola program was enjoyed.

Returning to the Denney home, a feast of big, juicy watermelons was indulged in before the guests bid their host and hostess adieu.

Among those attending were Comrade and Mrs. W. H. Emick, Comrade and Mrs. H. D. Goss, Comrade and Mrs. Houdyshel, Mr. and Mrs. Dodge, Comrades C. R. Norton, Thos. Gillette, Thos. M. Barrett, Robert Taylor, and Dr. Hunt, and Mesdames Jennie Phillips, Louise Purnell, Elizabeth Friedgen, Julia Sanders, Julina Hayes, Mae Burlingham, Effie Ripley, Susie Ogier, Clara Dufur, Alma Dutton, Mayme Pollock, Anna Burns, Lucinda Thayer, Delia Hapgood, Lillie Hartwig, Hannah Brown, Susie Peck, Phoebe Meyers, Tina Hammond, Pearl Gillette and Mrs. Teesdale, and others.

two sons, Carl Scheu, was recently inducted into service at the balloon school at Arcadia. Services were held the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, in charge of the Scovern-Letton-Frey Co.

C. B. ROBINSON DEAD

Claud Robinson died Thursday afternoon at the home of his mother, Mrs. W. F. Miller, 122 Acacia Street.

Claud Robinson was a member of the firm of Robinson Brothers who have been actively engaged in the business affairs of Tropico and Glendale for the past seven or eight years. They built up a fine business at the Park Avenue Grocery, which they relinquished when they took over the Glendale Transfer Co., which business they built up to include a "fire-proof" storage at their new home at Colorado and Brand Boulevards.

Mr. Robinson was a native of Tennessee, where he was born March 3rd, 1882.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 10:00 o'clock from the Little Church of the Flowers, Scovern-Letton-Frey Co. in charge.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF LITTLE PAUL LE NAY

Services were held Tuesday afternoon, at the Scovern-Letton-Frey undertaking parlors, for little Paul Le Nay, aged 21 months, and interment made in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Little Paul was the victim of an auto accident. He and his sister, aged about three years, had climbed into the John Lawson car, which was standing in front of their home on the edge of a hill in north Hollywood. In some manner they started the car, which went over the bluff. The little girl escaped serious injury, but her brother was badly crushed, and though rushed to the Receiving Hospital, and then to the County Hospital, it was without avail, death coming Sunday.

GRADE SCHOOLS OPEN

The Grammar Schools will open on Monday, September 16, 1918. It is very important that every child should enter school on the first day and should thereafter be regular and punctual in his attendance. Any absence may be a serious menace to a child's standing in his classes. Also, since the state and county apportionments of funds are based upon the average daily attendance, absence on schools except the Intermediate, financial loss to the district.

School Day

The school day will begin at 9 o'clock and close at 3:15 in all schools except the Intermediate, which will open at 8:45 and close at 3:15.

School Age

The legal age for entering school is six years. However, an allowance of three months is made. This means that in order to enter the first grade a child would have to be six on or before December 16, 1918. No beginners will be admitted after the close of the first month of the term.

Kindergartens

Kindergartens will be opened at the Cerritos avenue, Columbus avenue, Colorado boulevard, Broadway and Pacific avenue schools and are for children from four and one-half to six years.

Parents are advised not to send their children to kindergarten until they are at least four years and nine months old for the following reasons: first, we have a kindergarten course of only one year and if a child finishes that before he has attained the school age he will either have to drop out for a half year or take the same work over again in the kindergarten; second, a child of five will get much more out of the kindergarten work than a child of four and one-half.

Transfers

Children will not be permitted to attend school in a district other than that in which they reside except for good cause. Applications for Special Permits must be made to the Superintendent. Even where such permits are asked for, parents are requested to send their children on the first and second days of the term to the school in whose district they reside. Transfers can be made only after the number enrolled in each grade has been ascertained.

Superintendent's Office Hours

For any further information call up the Superintendent's office between the hours of nine and four except on Saturdays and Sundays. Telephones: Sunset Glendale 593; Home 1363.

Districts

Parents are urged to study the district lines as given below and to send their children to the school in whose district they reside, on the first day of the term. Please note carefully also the grades that each school will enroll. These district lines are subject to change either for a whole school or for separate grades if the first day's enrollment shows such change to be necessary.

Intermediate School

All seventh and eighth grade pupils in the Glendale City District, except those in the Cerritos avenue district, will attend the Intermediate School.

Acacia Avenue School

Grades B1, A1, B2, A2, B3, A3. The district of this school is that part of the Glendale City School District enclosed by the following described line:

Starting at the intersection of Central avenue and Cypress avenue the line runs east on Cypress and the easterly extension thereof to the city limits, taking both sides of Cypress, north along city limits to the easterly extension of Acacia, west on said extension and on Acacia, taking both sides of Acacia, to Adams street, north on Adams to the easterly extension of Raleigh street, west on said easterly extension and on Raleigh street and the westerly extension thereof to Brand boulevard, south on Brand to Tenth street, west on Tenth to Central Avenue, taking both sides of Tenth, south on Central to the starting point.

Cerritos Avenue School

All grades through the eighth. The district of this school is that part of the Glendale City School District enclosed by the following described line:

Starting at the intersection of the Southern Pacific tracks and the southerly city limits of Glendale, the line runs east and north along said limits to the easterly extension of Acacia avenue, west on said extension and on Acacia to Central avenue, north on Central to Paloma, west on Paloma and the westerly extension thereof to the Southern Pacific tracks, south along said tracks to the starting point.

Pacific Avenue School

Grades B1, A1, B2, A2, B3, A3, B4, A4, B5, B6. The district of this school is that part of the Glendale City School District enclosed by the following described line:

Starting at the intersection of the Southern Pacific tracks and the westerly prolongation of Paloma avenue, the line runs east on said prolongation and on Paloma to Central avenue, south on Central to Acacia avenue, east on Acacia to Brand boulevard, north on Brand to Fifth street, west on Fifth to Central, north on Central to Broadway, west on Broadway to the Southern Pacific tracks, south along said tracks to the starting point. All children in this district who will enter the A5 and A6 grades will go to the Colorado boulevard school.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale assembled Tuesday, September 10, 1918, in an adjourned session pursuant to motion adopted at the last regular meeting. All members were present.

Trustee Shaw made a report on the audit of the City books. He presented bids for the work as follows:

Arthur M. Loomis, $20.00 per day for his personal services, and $10.00 per day for an assistant, guaranteeing that the cost of the work shall not exceed $375.00.

A. A. Dechene, offering to do the work for the sum of $650.00 or upon the basis of $15.00 per day per man, plus transportation charges.

Baskerville Auditing Co., for the auditor in charge, $15.00 per day, and $10.00 per day for an assistant.

E. W. Brooks, auditing charge of $10.00 per day.

On motion of Trustee Henry, it was ordered that the work of the auditing of the City books be given to Mr. Loomis, all voting aye.

On motion of Trustee Shaw it was ordered that the following transfers be made:

From the Public Service Fund to General Budget Fund—$1,000.

From Insurance Reserve Fund to General Budget Fund—$2,194.46.

From Insurance Reserve Fund to General Service Fund—40.36; said sums so transferred from the Insurance Reserve Fund to be retransferred as soon as money is available in the funds to which the same is transferred.

On motion of Trustee Shaw the City Manager was authorized to sell the Liberty Bonds belonging to the City to the amount of $2,000.00, all voting aye.

Demand No. 7430 (Pay Roll) was reported back from the finance committee, approved and warrants issued for payment of same, all voting aye.

Trustee Shaw made a report in regard to transformers for the Public Service Department. In this connection a letter was read from the City Attorney, advising that the city would not be authorized under the law to expend any portion of Municipal Improvement District No. 2 bond fund for the payment of any obligations entered into before the district was organized.

Trustee Shaw presented the following resolution, which on his motion was adopted, all voting aye.

It appearing that the General Electric Co. has tendered delivery to the city of certain transformers under contract dated November 22, 1917, and the city being unable now to pay the price due under the contract by reason of non-receipt of income from which same is to be paid, This Board hereby authorizes a modification of said contract by which 50 per cent of the contract price is to be paid December 15, 1918, on delivery of transformers, 40 per cent on January 15th, 1919, and 10 per cent on February 15th, 1919, and the city will pay 6 per cent interest on each of said installments for the time that same is deferred; also demurrage that has accrued on cars in which said transformers were shipped from Glendale to Los Angeles and from Los Angeles to Glendale, and the City Attorney is directed to draw a contract accordingly.

Trustee Shaw presented an ordinance providing for the presenting and auditing of demands against the City of Glendale, which was read and laid over for further action.

A communication was read from the City Attorney in regard to the case of Mrs. Priscilla Houdyshel against the city, stating that in his opinion the case can be settled out of court for the sum of $75.00 and recommending that this action be taken.

New Wheat Rules for Households

Food Administration Tells What Each Housewife is Asked to do Under New Program

Full details of the new wheat saving program for the housewives of the state are announced by Acting Federal Food Commissioner Preston McKinney, following further advices from Washington.

The essential changes from the former program are:

1—Breads for each day and each meal henceforth to be partly wheatless, with the elimination of the two former wheatless days and the wheatless evening meals.

2—Curtailement of the list of wheat substitutes. Rice and breakfast foods are no longer substitutes.

3—Abolishment of the rule which restricted flour purchases in towns and cities to one-eighth of a barrel at each purchase and in rural districts to one-quarter of a barrel.

4—Abolishment of the 50-50 rule, which provides for the purchase of an equal quantity of substitute flours with wheat flours.

The new program calls for the use of Victory Mixed Flour which will contain the 20 per cent substitutes, and which will be put out by the mills. This flour will shortly be on the market.

In lieu of using this flour the housewife may purchase wheat flour at the ratio of four pounds to one pound of substitutes, which includes barley, corn, oat, potato, rice and other cereal flours. Where rye flour is used as a substitute two pounds must be purchased with each three pounds of the wheat product.

In brief, the nation is asked to use bread, rolls and other breadstuffs which shall contain at least twenty per cent of substitutes in accordance with the bread which the Allied nations will use.

The Food Administration made it clear that there should be no let-up in saving under the new wheat program, but that the restrictions have been modified in a measure commensurate with the improved conditions abroad.

No one is asked to continue on a strictly wheatless diet, but those who do so will be contributing that much toward winning the war, McKinney said.

FIGHTING WITH FOOD

By DR. RAY LYMAN WILBUR

President of Stanford University.

Redemption By Blood.

What have you and I done in our democracy? Did you ever stop to think about it? We put up service flags. They mean that you and I have picked out the best young men, the best we have. We have picked them out and sent them over there and said, "You go out and fight for us so that we can have liberty, freedom, and justice; we will go on as before but you fight and die while we stay home." That is what we have done, that is what we have said.

We have been talking in terms of dollars, not in terms of men. Our legislation has been in terms of dollars. Our talk of war has been a dollar talk. We are still in the dollar stage. Don't you know that dollars—money—is no longer the medium of exchange the world is using? The world is using today men and boys, the best it has, to buy the things we want—liberty, freedom, justice.

The precious blood of boys and men is the thing we are spending. I tell you if any American comes out of this war with one dollar more than when he went in, God forgive him. The American people never will.

The Submarine War.

Germany started submarine warfare to keep us from giving help to the Allies. That submarine war has gone on now for more than a year. We have watched it. We have read anxiously week by week the number of ships that have gone down. But the average American has failed to see civilization bleeding to death as each great ship went to the bottom. He has not seen the thread of ships that reaches from our Atlantic ports to England and France and Italy getting continually thinner and thinner. He has not realized that the life of this Nation hangs on that thread of ships. That is the only thing that connects us with the western front, and the western front is today the only thing on earth that counts. Everything here is insignificant except as it backs up that western front.

The United States is not in a position to fully meet the onslaught of the German military machine today. We have watched that machine as spectators, not realizing that we were in the center of the stage and the world was saying, What will America do? Will America understand? Will she send the men? Will she send the food? Will she build the ships? Will she fight the submarine?

Deep-Sea Pirates.

We went to war in a leisurely way not realizing what was going on. There has not been an hour in the last 17 months when there have not been men in open boats at sea trying to get to land; men in those boats dead of exposure, of thirst, of starvation, of shell wounds and machine-gun bullets, men who have gotten down from merchant vessels into little boats 500 to 1,000 miles from shore. For the submarine is a deep-sea pirate now and strikes its prey far from shore. Month after month that has been going on.

We were slow to understand because we thought modern Germany was like the Germans we have as our fellow citizens. We did not know that when Germany crushed the revolution in 1848, when the Hohenzollerns drove from Germany that portion of the liberty-loving people who are found in every land, that she thereby sowed the seeds of this war. She gave us the best blood she had, and it has been a great contribution to us. Those who stayed in Germany are a perverted and polluted generation that has willed this war. Theirs is the belief in the divine right of kings, the belief in conquest which regards not justice nor pity nor mercy.

The Spirit That Wins.

There is only one short way to win this war—unless Germany wins—and that is to get an absolute solution of the submarine. Otherwise we have got to keep the submarine under water and keep the ships on the water while we gradually build up an offensive against Germany.

But you can fight the submarine, because right now the thing that they are trying to do is to keep us from sending the food that England and France and Belgium and Italy need.

OFFICIAL VOTE, 61ST ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

The total vote of the county will not be ready to be given out officially until Friday, but the following is the official total vote of each of the five candidates for the Assembly from the 61st Assembly District:

Arthur G. Lindley.....	2,156
John Robert White, Jr.....	2,034
P. S. McNutt.....	990
Mrs. Jessie A. Russell.....	980
John E. Finnall.....	801

These figures are official, and were given from the official count yesterday, by the officer in charge. September 11, 1918. (These figures were given to us by Mr. H. A. Wilson, of Glendale.)

Mr. Lindley received 794 Republican votes, 904 Democratic, 16 Progressive and 442 Prohibition. Thus while he received about 120 more votes than Mr. White, the latter's votes were all on the Republican ticket, so that he is the nominee of that party by a vote of nearly three to one over Mr. Lindley. Thus the names of both will appear on the November ballot, Mr. White as the Republican candidate and Mr. Lindley as the candidate of the other three parties.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

One of the largest affairs of the season will be the harvest festival scheduled for the afternoons and evenings of September 20th and 21st, to be held on the High School grounds.

Plans for the festival were made early in the summer and have materialized to a state of perfection under the supervision of experts.

The two largest events will be a spectacular pageant, consisting of an all-star cast, and a military wedding. The wedding is in charge of the Service Girls, and is sure to be a huge success. All who have a special liking for soldiers and sailors will have a splendid opportunity to see these gallant lads, who will take part in the wedding, which is to take place only on the night of the 21st. Tickets can be secured from the Service Girls.

Among other attractions will be a country store, tea and chocolate booth, hot dog booth, cooked food booth and an apron booth.

There will also be a Court of Justice, fortune telling, and a table d'hôte dinner costing 50 cents.

The admission to the grounds is free, and all proceeds go to the Red Cross.

BERLIN-I-ENSIS*Alleged to be the Re-Incarnation of Paramount Prehistoric Monster

By Walt Le Noir Church

On dit: At a late ghostly convention of Prehistoric Monsters, held in "No-Man's Land," a very important question was bitterly argued, ending in adjournment, sine die, after a scene which would have made the mix-up at Donnybrook Fair look like a pink tea in the Y. W. C. A.

The Convention had informally resolved itself into an Indignation Committee of the Whole. As all could not be heard at once, they resorted to primeval methods, with the slogan; "If ye can reach a head, why hit ut."

It appears that this indiscriminate result closely followed the impromptu poem spouted by a self-appointed moderator, who quickly found that a difference of taste in jokes may start something sudden.

At first sight, his inspirational promulgation appears rather innocuous; but like an I. W. W. bomb or a Boche peace signal, it proved more incendiary than it looks.

The ensuing excitement has a tendency to blur the memory, but our reporter vows, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the following is substantially correct, in spirit, if not entirely letter perfect. Omitting a rather lengthy list of "Among those present," and compelled by lack of space to plunge "in medias res;"

"Spake the ghostly Tylosaurus to a fierce Prozenlodon,
The Dryptosaurus Brawler, and Macronix Dimorphedon;

While Titanotherium Rubustum and Carnivorous Dinosaur
Nudged Pterodactyl and Toxodon, and the frisky Minotaur;

"All ye monsters of past ages who have made the earth to quake,
Ye are now no longer in it; quite another takes the cake.

For horrid beastliness we the lead no longer claim—

We are little old back numbers—since the Hohenzollern came."

INSTALLATION AND CHANGING OF TELEPHONES

Owing to the necessity for conserving labor and material and to eliminate a cost which is now borne by the permanent user of the telephone, a readiness to serve or installation charge will be made on and after September 1, 1918, for all new installations, also a charge for all changes in location of telephones.

Installation charges to be as follows:

Where the rate is $2 a month or less $ 5
Where the rate is more than $2, but not exceeding $4 a month. 10
Where the rate is more than $4 a month 15

The moving charge to the subscriber will be the actual cost of labor and material necessary for making the change.

In accordance with bulletin No. 2, issued by me August 1, 1918, stating that "until further notice the telegraph and telephone companies shall continue operation in the ordinary course of business through regular channels," in all cases where rate adjustments are pending or immediately necessary they should be taken up by the company involved through the usual channels and action obtained wherever possible. In all cases, however, where rates are changed such changes should be submitted to me for approval before being placed in effect.

CHAPTER XV.

Each day in the Argonne levied its toll of victims, sometimes many, sometimes only a few. It is only natural that the morale of the soldiers should not be at its best under these circumstances. With the same indifference that the men had once gone to their work to support their wives and children they now went into action. This business of killing had become daily routine. Whenever we discussed our situation, the crown prince and the commander of the Sixteenth army corps, Lieutenant General von Mudra, fared worst.

The troops in the Argonne forest belonged to the Sixteenth corps, the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth divisions. Neither the crown prince nor Von Mudra had ever been seen in the trenches. One of the members on the crown prince's staff was the old field marshal, Count von Haeseler, former commander of the Sixteenth corps, who, before the war, was considered a human fiend. These three called Clover Leaf by the soldiers, were far more despised by most of the men than were the French cannon, which sought our miserable lives.

The Hohenzollern heir did not find life hard at his headquarters several kilometers behind the battle front. It was easy for him to make himself popular with his order to go ahead at the cost of thousands of lives. He was very well liked among the high officers, with whom he sat behind a stove although the progress was not fast enough for them.

He honored Von Mudra with the order "Pour la Merite," but of the soldiers he never had a thought.

They had not seen a bed for months. They were never given a chance to remove their clothing.

They received only shells and steel and were almost eaten up by vermin. They were covered with lice. There was scarcely enough water for drinking purposes, to say nothing of water for washing their clothes.

Our hair and beards were long and when we were given some hours of rest the lice would not let us sleep. While we were in the trenches the bullets did not do much damage but daily men were killed by indirect fire. The thousands which whizzed through the air every minute flew over our heads.

They struck trees or branches and glanced off, striking the men in the trenches. Failing to pierce their object directly they tore terrible gaping wounds as they entered the men's bodies sideways. Whenever we heard charges concerning dum-dum bullets, we thought of these cross-shots, although we never doubted the existence of the dum-dums.

Whether or not dum-dum bullets were made in the munitions factories I cannot say. I suspect they were. However, I did see many dum-dum bullets made by the soldiers themselves. The points were filed off from German musket shells so that the nickel covering was perforated, baring the lead filling.

The bullet flattened when it struck its object. If, for instance, it entered a man's arm, the explosive charge in it would so shatter the arm as to blow it entirely off and leave it hanging by the skin.

German soldiers were frequently seen supplying themselves with dum-dum bullets in the trenches, preparing to inflict terrible wounds.

On January 5, 1915, the Germans attacked on their entire front of the Argonne forest sector and several hundred prisoners were taken. The hand-to-hand fight continued until six o'clock in the evening.

A fellow pioneer and myself found ourselves in a bit of trench held by eight Frenchmen. It was impossible to retire so we accepted the unequal fight. Fortunately we were well supplied with hand grenades.

We cut the fuses short so that they would explode as quickly as possible. I threw one among the eight soldiers. Before the men could get out of the way of the first, the second one followed, which exploded in their midst.

We took advantage of the confusion thus created to hurl five more. Our enemies were now reduced to four men. We opened fire with our muskets, closing in on the four. Their bullets whizzed around our heads. One man was shot in the mouth. That left three. They turned and tried to flee.

In such moments as these one is in a great rage and forgets danger entirely.

We were very close to our enemies now, right on their heels when the last man stumbled and fell.

I sprang on top of him. He defended himself with his fists. My comrade went after the other two. Bleeding at the mouth, this man fought on. After I had knocked several of his teeth out he raised his hands and surrendered. I released him from my grip and looked him over carefully. He was about thirty-five years old. He showed me his wedding ring and talked to me. I knew what he wanted, he wanted his life.

He gave me his canteen that I might drink some wine and wept. Perhaps he thought of his wife and children. I pressed his hand and he showed me his bleeding teeth. I called him a fool and told him he was lucky to have gotten away with the loss of only a few molars. I was glad I had not killed him. I took him back myself, in order to protect him against being misused. As I delivered him over to where the prisoners were being assembled, he pressed my hand and smiled.

CHAPTER XVI.

The next day we received orders to march to an unknown destination. We soon arrived at the depot of Apremont where we were obliged to wait. The depot had been destroyed. The next station was Chatel. Both of these places are about five kilometers behind the front.

The prisoners were assembled in Apremont. Several of them had come from that town. Their families were still in their homes and many prisoners asked permission to visit them. I had occasion to witness such a visit in Apremont. Two reserves led one of the prisoners to the house, which he had pointed out as his. The prisoner's young wife was in the kitchen with her three children. We followed them into the house.

The woman turned pale as she suddenly saw her husband. They embraced. We went outside for we felt out of place there.

The woman had not had a letter from her husband for five months because the Germans were between her and her husband's army. He had been in the trenches for a month, realizing how nearby his wife and children were, yet unable to reach them and with no way of knowing whether they were alive or dead.

How he must have felt as the French shells flew over his head on their way to Apremont!

There was no way of knowing whether the glow in the sky caused by the burning of a house was furnished by his home or not. Everything became a torturing uncertainty and all of life was a hell.

Home again for a few hours; then away, a prisoner! At least he would be able to get word to his wife by letter through the field posts.

Finally he said good-by. His wife had nothing to give him, no laundry, no food.

Everything had been lost and she lived on the soldiers' bounty. She gave him her last money and he refused to take it. She accepted the money back.

It consisted of a few 5 and 10 pfennig pieces and some coppers, all she had.

Unable to endure this we took a collection among ourselves. We made up more than 10 marks, which we gave to the young woman. She refused it at first, then looking at her husband, she took it and tried to kiss our hands.

When we refused to let her do this she ran to a store nearby and returned with cigars, tobacco, matches and sausage, which she gave to her husband.

She smiled perhaps for the first time in a long while.

The children were with their father and they kissed him as he left. He had one child on each arm and his wife carried the third.

With the greatest happiness the family walked along between the two armed soldiers. When the moment of parting came all began to cry.

This was the fate of thousands of poor French and Belgian men and women, quartered near their homes yet unable to know who was dead or alive.

While we stood at the depot ten German soldiers arrived with fixed bayonets. Between them were three French citizens in civilian clothing, whom they escorted. All were elderly men. We asked an old Frenchman what this was about and he said:

"We receive our food from the German military officials but it is not sufficient to live on. The people have nothing left. All stock and food had been seized. These three men refused to work any longer for the German military officials because they could not live on what they received.

We ran down hill till we came to Varennes. The southern section of the town had been wrecked by shells and fire. Many chimneys were all that was left standing of whole rows of houses. Soldiers everywhere collected scraps of metal which were transported to Germany. The church bells were loaded on wagons and sent away. All the copper, tin, brass and nickel which could be found was gathered.

"They were arrested and are being sent to Germany. No one knows what their fate would be there. The men were being taken away by the Germans and interned in Germany."

We received orders to march to Varennes and left the next morning. As we reached the heights of Varennes about noon we saw the wide country before us and the city nestling in the valley. Farther up on the heights was Vauquois. Nothing could be seen of any houses but through our field glasses we could make out an enormous ash heap. Shells fell there continuously and we were frightened at the prospect of having to go to that spot.

Scarcely had we crossed the heights when some shells burst behind us. The French artillery even singled out individuals. While Vauquois was in their possession they could co-ordinate the entire neighborhood. We understood now why this ash heap had been contested for so bitterly.

AT THE PALACE GRAND

"Riders of the Purple Sage," from the famous novel of the same name, by Zane Grey, is the attraction at the Palace Grand today, Saturday, September 14, and the principal role is played by no less an actor than William Farnum. Many weeks were spent in filming the thrilling outdoor scenes in the magnificently impressive Grand Canyon of Arizona and in the desert wastes. The story was bought from sented on Monday. A shadow on the window shade—a bundle of love letters—see what trouble they can cause. Also Bruce's wonderful outdoor pictures. There will be a matinee at 2:30, and evening shows at 7:15 and at 8:45.

The popular star of "Flare-Up Sal," "Flame of the Yukon," and other big pictures, Dorothy Dalton, will be seen at the local theatre again next Tuesday in her latest big triumph, "Green Eyes." Her husband went through life nursing a terrible grouch; he thought she loved everyone on earth except him. Things went from bad to worse until poor wifey was about ready to give up the ghost. Then—There will also be a cartoon comedy of travels. Matinee begins promptly at 2:30 and the evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

For the benefit of those who missed Cecil B. De Mille's great production, "Till I Come Back to You," a special return showing will be given on next Wednesday. It is a wonderful picture, very exciting and thrilling, but is very bright and pleasing. A guaranteed treat for all, whether child or adult. There will also be a Christie Comedy, entitled, "This Way Out." Matinee at 2:30, evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

For Thursday, September 19th, is offered a big hair-raising Western drama, William S. Hart in his very latest picture, "Riddle Gawne." It is a smashing story of the great outdoors, brimful of kick and punch. It is a picture that the public will like. In addition, the Allied Official War Review will be shown. This is a feature shown every Thursday, and tells what the boys are doing on the different fronts. Matinee at 2:30, evening shows at 7:00 and 8:45.

CONVERSION OF LIBERTY BONDS

The privilege of conversion which arose in consequence of the issue of 4 per cent bonds of the Third Liberty Loan will expire on November 9 next and under existing law can not be extended or renewed. Delay in exercising the privilege will result in overburdening the banking institutions of the country and the Treasury Department by making it necessary to handle all conversions at the last moment and may result in many cases in the loss of the privilege of conversion altogether.

Holders of coupon bonds are strongly advised to change them for registered bonds in order to protect themselves against the risk of loss, theft, and destruction of their bonds.

The banks throughout the country, as a matter of patriotic service, will doubtless assist bondholders in converting and registering their bonds.

OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC

The Old Settlers' Association of the San Fernando Valley will hold its annual picnic at Echo Park, Los Angeles, Saturday, September 21st next. Although this picnic is generally attended mainly by the old settlers of Glendale, Tropico and Eagle Rock, it is desired that the pioneers from all sections of the valley be present, together with as many of the later settlers as feel disposed to attend. A hearty welcome will be extended to all comers, resident or former residents in the valley. Everybody is requested to be present by noon or as soon thereafter as possible. Hot coffee furnished.

Sunday's offering is promised as one of the greatest all around good pictures ever shown. It is "For Husbands Only," starring Mildred Harris. It's full of humor, and is a picture that you'll never forget. Bring your wife—and the rest of the family. There will also be a good comedy. Matinee at 2:30. Evening shows at 6:45 and 8:45.

How New Wheat Rules Affect Grocers

Change Made in Substitutes and Quantity that Must be Sold With Wheat Flour

Grocers are now permitted to sell four pounds of wheat flour with one pound of substitute flours under the rules regulating the new wheat saving program, it is announced by Acting Food Commissioner Preston McKinney. Larger quantities may be sold in the same ratio.

The Food Administration's official bulletin of Sept. 3 contained full instructions to grocers and bakers.

Rice in the grain and breakfast foods, one of which is oatmeal, are no longer wheat flour substitutes, although rice flour is. Barley flour, corn flour and corn meal, rye flour and oat flour and other cereal flours also are on the official substitute list. Grocers are now required to carry at least three substitutes—barley flour, corn meal and corn flour.

The new Victory Mixed Flour, which contains the required twenty per cent substitutes and which will be put out from the mills, will be on the market soon. When this Victory Mixed Flour is purchased by the housewife no other substitutes need be purchased at that time.

While there is no definite limit placed on the quantity of wheat flour the grocer is permitted to sell, either in the city or rural districts, hoarding will not be tolerated, McKinney said. No more than a reasonable amount of either the Victory Mixed Flour, or the pure wheat flour with the required substitutes should be bought at one time.

Although the wheat saving rules have been slightly relaxed due to improved conditions among the Allies, the patriotic public should observe the new restrictions rigidly, the Food Administration urges. Unless the new program is given the same measure of loyal support that obtained previously, wheat saving henceforth will not be sufficiently effective to meet the requirements of our soldiers and the troops and civilian populations of the Allies.

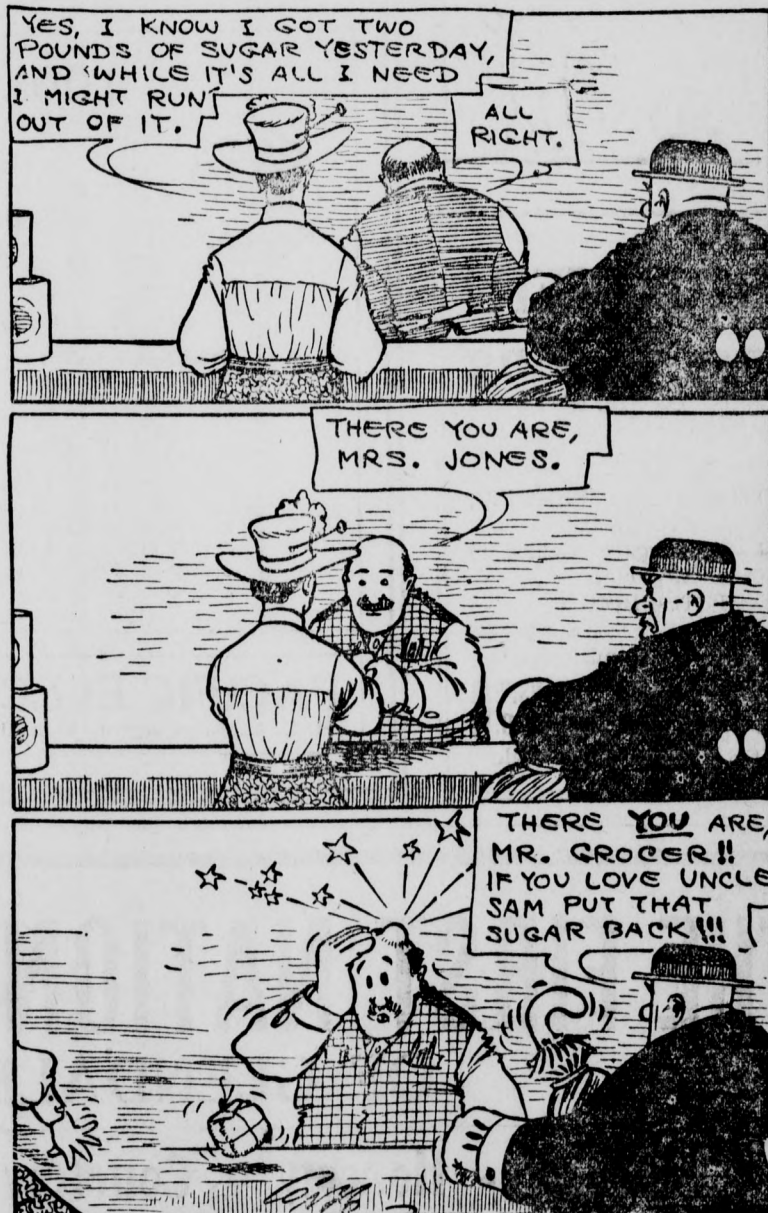

In a nutshell, the new program calls for only a twenty per cent substitution in breadstuffs, and no patriotic American will use straight wheat flour in bread or rolls and leave the substitutes on the shelf, McKinney said.

Remember! the men in our Army and Navy do not expect luxuries. Should we at home expect them? Buy necessities and War Savings
